Overall, 46 St. Petersburg institutions of higher education took part in the Universiade. Student competed in 12 sports – ten cups were won by athletes from SPbPU. «We became champions in chess, floorball (or floor hockey - author's note), water polo, table tennis,» IPEST Director V.P.SUSHCHENKO says. «Our students also took first place in some categories of sambo and boxing.»

The winning teams from SPbPU have gained access to the next stage of the competition and are already upholding the honor of our city at the All-Russian Universiade in Belgorod. And in July, the SPbPU water polo team will represent our University at the European University Games in Croatia.
