

The competition for ERASMUS+ project scholarships in 2021 is on!

The Department of International Educational Programs and Academic Mobility announces the start of a new competition for scholarships for SPbPU graduate and postgraduate students on ERASMUS+ projects for the fall semester 2021. Applications will be reviewed and nominated on the basis of an open competition, in which all SPbPU undergraduate and graduate students can participate.

In the fall of 2021, students at Polytechnic University will have the opportunity to study at universities in Germany, Great Britain, Spain, Portugal, France, Turkey, Romania, Latvia, and Lithuania.

On February 11, 2021, managers of the Department of International Educational Programs and Academic Mobility will hold two webinars to talk about the features of studying abroad, Erasmus+ scholarship programs, and the application process. Webinar for Russian students will start at 16:00 Moscow time and will be held in Russian, broadcast for international students will start at 17:00 and will be held in English.

To participate in webinars, registration is required. To do this, you need to fill out a special form for Russian students or for international students. After registering, webinar participants will receive links to connect to webinars and additional instructions.

You can find the rules of participation in Erasmus+ programs on the SPbPU website in the section ERASMUS+ actual competitions. We also regularly publish feedback from Russian and international program participants on the Polytechnic University website Erasmus+. So, OLGA GOLOVAN' talked about studying and living in Bavaria during the quarantine period, ARINA VESELOVA shared her impressions of her internship at the University of Cadiz, Spain, and YAGMUR QUCHUK talked about the spring semester at Polytechnic University.
