

Institute of Industrial Management, Economics and Trade (IIME&T) Won All-Russian Competition "Economics and Management-2015"

Last week Moscow hosted the solemn ceremony of awarding winners of the All-Russian competition for departments and educational programs "Economics and Management - 2015". The Competition jury recognized the Department of Strategic Management, Graduate School of Marketing and Entrepreneurship (IIME&T), the winner in the nomination "Management".

The contest was organized by the Free Economic Society of Russia in cooperation with the International Management Academy, with the support of the Economic Newspaper Publishing House. The Competition aims to identify the best departments and educational programs in economics, to determine the effective implementation of innovations in training specialists who would be in demand on the market and would meet international standards.
