

A study of custom implantation for hip replacement reviews. News Directory

Researchers of NTI SPbPU developed a mathematical model of an "endoprosthesis-skeleton" system. Using advanced computer modeling technologies, the team assessed the integrity of the biomechanical structure for a typical case (a patient standing on two legs).

More News Directory

Дата публикации: 2019.12.16

>>Перейти к новости

>>Перейти ко всем новостям