

Eighteenth Century Italian Violin Sounded in White Hall

On March 3 Maria Shalgina, a world known violinist, for the first time appeared in the White Hall, Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University. She played a valuable violin, which was created by the Italian master Domenico Montagnana in 1725.

>>Перейти к новости

>>Перейти ко всем новостям